Governor Price on Slavery.

From his late Message to the Legislature of N. Jersey.] I herewith transmit communications of public interest, received from the States of Ma setts, Connecticut, and Maine, in accordance with the request contained in the resolutions of these They refer to the Missouri Compromise and the Slavery question.

It is to be regretted that any of the States of the Union should deem it necessary to agitate, at this or any other time, subjects like these, in a spirit so imperative and unconciliatory. It must os admitted by all, that the questions referred to are of a character to collist in their consideration all the prudence, moderation, and forbestance which the people of every section of the confederation have a right to expect and demand from those of other sections. In this spirit do I desire to direct the attention of the Legislature to the ounts involved in these resolutions

That the so-called Missouri Compromise was, in self, an expedient devised to accommodate, for the time being, the conflicting opinions which existed in regard to the admission of the State of Missouri with a constitution recognizing the existence of slavery, no one will deny. The act was, in its nature, so far as the future exclusion of sla-vory from the remainder of the territory acquired com France in the cession of Louisiana, a restricon upon the rights of the slaveholding Statessince in the normal condition of that territory slavery was recognized. And, although tacitly submitted to for a while, there was nothing in its provisions to east around it the halo of "good aith" which its advocates pretend should have guarded it from repeal. But it is repealed; and I abmit: Can it now be restored with any advantage? In restoring it, were it possible to do so, we bring back the free citizens who now inhabit or may in future inhabit those territories, to that ndition of quasi-colonial dependence which they are now freed from, and which is at variance w the principles of free government. We, as Jer evinen, contend that we have the capacity and are endowed by nature in common with all our coun-trymen, to the right of self-government. We en by it to the fullest extent in our own State. Bu should inclination or necessity take us to a terri-tory, the common property of usual, shall we there-by forfeit that right and become more subservion: the will of the Federal Government than we no Shail we part with the right of having voice in the establishment of institutions on woil

the North than by our brethren of the South.

With regard to the disturbances in Kansas, how ever much they formed a subject of igin as much in the acts of the misguided fanaticism of a portion of the people of the Eastern States as in the violence of the intruders from the borders of Missouri. If either of these parties had been willing to have doal; fairly by the settlers in Kansas, and to have left the njoyment of the rights which they themselve cossessed under their Territorial law and the Con stitution of the United States, no disturbance would have occurred, excepting such as may b onsidered inseparable from the condition of the first occupants of remote Territories; but such is the innate good-sense and love of justice of the American poople, that discord cannot sway them long in the presence of these substantial benefits to be produced by harmony and union. Lieft to themselves, the people of Kansas will settle their own differences, as they would do were they still the inhabitants of organized States, without any interference from federal authority.

The States whose resolutions I am now commenting on, ask for the repeal of the fugitive slave law, and a good deal of discussion has, in my humble independ the states. blu judgment, been wasted in regard to the con-stitutionality of this act. Without troubling you with details, or the hair-splitting distinctions made in regard to some of its clauses, I deem it merely necessary to refer you to the section of the Constitution of the United States, applicable to the subject. It is thereby declared, art. IV., sec-"No person held to service or labor in one State under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24. Outside of the President's Cabinet, no one knew f his intention to communicate a special message on Kansas affairs; hence it took his political friends and foes by surprise. Considering the summary manner in which the House refused to read his annual message, and the large majority in favor of reading the Kansas message, this is considered an important event by the friends of the Adminstration, and causes them jubilant emotions.

DISPENSARY. dide amid all the varied and intricate processes of this business.—N. O. Picayane.

It were a work of supercrogation to prise a book of Mons. Lacour's writing. The volume before us is remarkable for its completeness and the exact practical directions which it gives. Old manufacturers will find all of the old modes entirely superseded. The use of the old formulas would appear sette "foam of folly" in ine presence of the new ones suggested in this work. One of the principal objects appears to be to avoid, as far as possible, the use of appearance or expensive to the operator) applicances of any kind in the manufacture of liquous, oc.—New Fort Times.

This volume contains the art of preparing and put thing up the whole last of dishables, from a choice pate of otard bupuy, of the vintage of 1755, to a simple and economical manuer of making cider without apples, by fermentation. This work will revolutionize the presentistyle of manufacturing liquors. New York Herald.

Lacour's book for instructing in the art of making and bottling effervescing temperance beverages, in quors, whee, and pure vinegarior the table, should be in the hands of every housekeeper in the country. The copyright forbids, or we would give our readers, this morning, some of the most valuable recipes that ever appeared in prit. How somuch information can be given for two dollars is the most axionishing teature connected with the book. "New York Times."

LACOUR ON LIQUOR.—This is the most complete work on the manufacture of liquors that we ever met with; it contains an immense number of formulas for making every variety of liquors, wines, cerdials, bitters, syrups, winegar, a.c. The work is published by stusser-ption; the subscribers are cealers and in porters of hiquors in this city. This alone would speak more in favor of the reliabinty of the work than could be otherwise said.

Dr. Price's Chronic Specific. has more efficacy than any remedy ever offered to the afflicted. This cannot be successfully controverted, as the evidence in its favor is so strong and weighty. We will not give a long array of certificates. We will give but few, and three shall be from gentlemen high in itanding and widely known, such as lion. J. R. Uoderwood, R.v. Win, L. Breckfurdies, Judge Asfer Graham, Judge Wm. V. Loving, Dr. Haggard, and Dr. L. C. Ponter.

I have seen many of Dr. Price's patients afflicted with the Scrofula, both before and after they were headed. It is certain that meers of the most inveterate character seemed to yield readily to his Uhronic Specific. I have seen many certificates in possession of Dr. Price, hearing testimony to his entire saccess.

From Rev. Wm. L. Brockinridge. A servant sirl in my family was efficied with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. Notwithstanding she had medical treat ment, upon the whole she prew worse, until I feared that she would become totally blind. She was placed under Dr. Price's treatment, and to all appearances a radical cure was performed. For several months past she has seemed to me, as she does now, to be perfectly free from any defect or soreness of the cyes, and to be in perfect health otherwise.

Louisvihe, Ky. WM. L. BRECKINRIDGE.

From Judge Asher Graham, (Formerly a member of the Bench of the Court of Appeals).

I have seen some of Dr. Price's patients. They appeared to have been very much discased, almost beyond I have seen bouncer runded diseased, almost beyong peared to have been very much diseased, almost beyong all hopes of recovery. They now seem to be periodly relieved.

ASHER GRAHAM. Bowling Green, Ky.

From Judge Wm. V. Loving, From Judge Wm. V. Loving,

(The American Candidate for Governor).

I have seen several of Dr. Price's patients; amongs others, Mr. S. II. Dickerson, of Mource co. At the time I saw him he was diseased from head to foot. The left side of his face and neck was greatly enlarged and swollen. All of the left side of his neck, breast, and right shoulder were a mass of filthy dis-ages and running sores. As he would work his arms, the air would escape from deep ulers under his collar bones, causing filthy matter and blood to bubble out. The use of the probe had proved that some of these ulers extended not the hollow of the body. Mr. Dickerson put himself under Br. Price's treatment, who administered his Chronic Specific, and, strange to tell, a permannut cure was effected.

Bowling Green, Ky.

From Dr. D. R. Haggard, (President of the Board of Internal Improvement). (Fresident of the Board of Internal Improvement). Within my own knowledge, In-Price, who now resides in Louisville, has been signally successful in curing Scordula. Some of the worst cases that have occurred in Kentucky have been cured by the nee of his Chronic Specific. When all hope had died, he was applied to, and his treatment restored them to perfect health. Three of these cases were cured within a few miles of my residence.

D. R. HAGGARD.
